The Private Security Industry Regulatory Authority (PSiRA), with its head office in Centurion (Eco Park), is the statutory body regulating the private security industry in South Africa.

NOTICE TO INCREASE FEES – 2017/18 FINANCIAL YEAR

The mandate of the Private Security Industry Regulatory Authority (PSiRA) is to regulate the private security industry and to exercise control over the practice of the occupation of security services providers in the public interest, national interest and the interest of the private security industry itself.

Pursuant to the objectives of section 4(w) of the Private Security Industry Regulatory Act, 2001 (Act 56 of 2001), the Authority hereby issues a notice to increase fees as contained in the Schedule. The implementation of the annual fees increase will commence with effect from the 01 April 2017.

According to Section 4(w) of the Private Security Industry Regulatory Act, 2001 (Act 56 of 2001), the Authority must take steps to achieve its objective with the means at its disposal and may, subject to this Act and any other law, for the purpose of achieving its objectives, determine, change and collect fees as provided for in this Act or in respect of any service rendered by the Authority or any object made available by the Authority.

The current industry growth continuously places enormous pressure on the Authority to ensure its services are accessible to the public and all its stakeholders.
